TOURS

DEATH VALLEY EXPEDITION

APRIL 9 TO 16

The Thirteenth Tour and Inspection Trip to Death Valley and Mojave Desert Region provides an opportunity to see huge chemical plants, beautiful Red Rock Canyon, stupendous Hoover Dam, and the beauty and grandeur of Death Valley. The expedition will travel by automobile in caravan style, the food, bedding, water and fuel being handled on trucks. The tour is planned primarily as a scientific and educational trip for studying nature in the rough. For complete information, contact J. H. Jonte, College of the Pacific.

CALIFORNIA MISSIONS

APRIL 9 TO 15

A six day tour during the Easter Vacation, visiting all the Franciscan Missions. To be made by chartered bus, this tour will feature Dr. Rockwell D. Hunt, noted California historian, who will supplement the Mission Padres with lectures and discussions. A study tour of the Franciscan Missions will afford a splendid opportunity to survey Spain's contribution to our civilization. Hundreds of miles over one of Amerca's most beautiful highways, El Camino Real.

CHAPEL

Student-directed chapel services will be held every Sunday and Tuesday at 11:00 A. M. in the Morris Chapel on the Campus.
